

THE NEWS IN OGDEN.

About the Proposed Change in the Chamber of Commerce.

BUSINESS MEN DON'T APPROVE.

A Brevity Budget of News from the Herald's Regular Junction City Correspondent.

SALT LAKE HERALD BUREAU, No. 233 WASHINGTON AVENUE, OGDEN, AUGUST 15, 1889.

Mr. T. A. Harris, the real estate broker, is out with a fine team which he has just purchased.

Mr. J. H. Strayer, of the Inter-State Town and Land company, left for Denver yesterday morning.

Mr. Higginbotham and family returned from the canyon yesterday after a week's camping at Winslow's popular resort.

Mr. S. M. Proshaw and family left yesterday for a few days' outing in the canyon. Mr. Holmes attends to Mr. Proshaw's real estate business during his absence.

September 2 being Labor day, the largest crowd of the season will turn out to the resort if the weather is favorable. The thorough organization of labor in this vicinity will make this occasion more than an ordinary day.

On the 21st the Brotherhood of Railroad Brakemen monopolize the resort, and a lively crowd is assured. A series of sports are being arranged and the Ogdens brass band will pour forth sweet strains of music for which they are so well known.

Mr. Andrew Zimmer, aged twenty-one, the son of Mr. Fred Zimmer, member of the city council, died at his father's house on Broadway last evening morning of typhoid fever. The funeral will take place at 2 p.m. Thursday. Our heartfelt sympathy extended to the bereaved family.

On the 15th (to-day) Prof. Wiegand's band have their grand excursion to Lake Park, which will be well patronized from this city. Extra trains will run for the accommodation of the excursionists. The water and atmosphere will both be favorable for a day's bathing. A variety of sports will be indulged in during the day.

A matter of some comment and general interest is the number of good, solid families moving to Ogdens from other parts of the territory, particularly Utah county. About a dozen good, substantial families may be counted from Utah county, who are now now to be classed as residents in our American city, and to whom we extend a cordial welcome.

Among the familiar old time faces to be seen on the streets, is Mr. Perry, the contractor, who has been located at Anacoda, Mo., for the past few years. Mr. Perry has just returned from California where he has been spending several weeks for the benefit of his health, he having been leaded at Anacoda a year ago. Mr. Perry will probably again locate in Ogdens.

The Hot Springs resort, nine miles north of town, has been purchased from R. H. Slater by Mr. A. H. Swan, who will proceed at once to erect new buildings and push the motor line to the resort. There are 250 acres of valuable ground adjoining which Mr. Swan has also purchased, and upon which a fine race track will be built, with the necessary buildings, including pavilion, stable with 100 stalls, etc. It is hoped to have all completed in time for the fall races.

Among the campers at the Winslow resort at present are: Rev. Mr. Barnett and family; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Warner, of South Bend, Indiana; the families of Messrs. Short and Hank, the Twenty-fourth street real estate dealers; Mr. W. L. Baird and family, recently from Lawrence, Kas.; but now residents of this city; Mr. Adams and family, of Adams Bros., photographers; Miss Adelaide Barry, of Harrows, and many others whose names we are unable to secure.

Mr. Garrison, an old Nevada and Colorado mining man, who has made several fortunes in the business, is in the city and has been for the past week, looking over the mineral resources in this vicinity. Mr. Garrison says inside of the next few months, Ogdens will prove to be a second Leadville, with some considerable free milling ore. He was much surprised at the fine showings of hercynite and has concluded to cash his investments.

Mr. J. M. Wallace, a wealthy planter from Como, Miss., near Memphis, Tenn., was registered at the Brown yesterday, and your correspondent had a pleasant chat with him. Mr. Wallace is on a pleasure trip through the west, having stopped at Denver and Salt Lake and is now looking over the western metropolis, with which he is much pleased. He is highly delighted with our lake resorts and says Great Salt Lake is certainly the finest bathing in the world, excepting, perhaps, the Caspian sea, with which he was enchanted.

Mr. Wallace thinks Ogdens a magic city, and one that is bound to double in population within a very few years. He left for San Francisco last evening.

The Chamber of Commerce is taking on the chamber of commerce reorganization matter, is attracting considerable comment, and your correspondent has gathered the opinions of several of the most prominent citizens on the subject.

Mr. R. Robinson—Where can we get as good a board as equal to the present? Who could and would take the interest that S. M. Proshaw, Judge Krassus and other prominent members have? Too hot weather and our close proximity to the beautiful lake resorts, no doubt, in a large measure accounts for the lack of interest manifested during this hot weather. By no means would I suggest any change.

Mr. John Boyle—I do not care to express any opinion on the subject. I am not a member of the chamber at present.

Mr. A. H. Swan—The present chamber is doing as much for Ogdens as any possibly could do with the existing means at their command. All matters of public interest have received their careful attention.

Mr. H. T. Snyder, hardware dealer, says he is not a member of the chamber, but cannot see how there could be a better board organized, or where reorganization would help matters.

Mr. A. G. Fell, livery man—There is no trouble with the present board. The whole trouble lays with our business men, who fail to lead their attendance and counsel.

Mr. T. A. Harris, real estate—The chamber has done remarkably well with their means at their command. Some time ago I suggested that the owners of each of the new city additions donate to the chamber of commerce a certain number of lots in such addition, to be sold as the chamber saw fit, the proceeds to be used to encourage manufacturing and other industries. This suggestion met with the approval of those to whom I spoke, but no definite plan has yet been pursued in the premises. A reorganization might be advisable, as there has been a large influx of new life into town, and many of the new owners might take a more active interest.

J. E. Palmer, manager of Western Union Telegraph company: The present board appears to me to be composed of the best men in the city. Possibly if some of the malcontents could be put in it would relieve the present members, and those put in their places would find it anything but a heavy road to travel. It's not always best to have one board bear the brunt of the battle year after year.

E. A. Reed, of Reed & Snyder: The present board is all right. Let the new members, Ogdens' representative men and every man interested in Ogdens' progress, encourage the board by their presence, and all will go along smoothly.

There was a terrible epidemic of dysentery and bloody flux in Pope county, Illinois, last summer. As many as five deaths occurred in one day. Messrs. Walter Brothers, of Waterbury, sold over three hundred and eighty bottles of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy during this epidemic and say they never heard of its failing in any case when the directions were followed. It was the only medicine used that did cure the worst cases. Many persons were cured by it after the doctors had given them up. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by Z. C. M. I. drug department.

Also make prices on all special machinery in our line, including steam engines, boilers and steam plant fixtures generally.
